ELIZA LANGDON OLIVER RECOGNIZED BY LA TIMES AS AN INSPIRATIONAL WOMAN

LOS ANGELES – November 21, 2022 – Employer defense law firm Hudock Employment Law Group announced today that senior attorney Eliza Langdon Oliver has been selected as a nominee by L.A. Times for its “2022 Inspirational Women Awards” and profiled in Inpsirational Women Magazine. The ‘Inspirational Women Forum & Awards’ recognizes female business leaders in Los Angeles for their noteworthy success and accomplishments during the last 24 months.

“This recognition is a testament to the passion and commitment Eliza brings to all that she does,” said founding attorney Robert Hudock. “She is skillful, strategic and resourceful in service of firm clients and the business community at large.”

Langdon Oliver is a litigator with more than 12 years of experience, primarily focused on employment law. She joined Hudock Employment Law Group in 2018 and has become an integral part of the client service litigation team. Langdon Oliver’s experience includes wage and hour cases, FEHA discrimination, harassment and retaliation cases, and class actions.

“I really like to help clients reach a settlement,” said Oliver. “When I can achieve a favorable resolution quickly, they can put their resources and energy into their companies, and not into legal disputes.”

Named a “Woman to Watch” in 2022 by the Los Angeles Business Journal, Langdon Oliver practiced in several large international firms before joining Hudock Employment Law Group. She earned her JD at Loyola Law School and her BA at Michigan State University.
